

Nestle Wagner digitises production with Getac's fully rugged computing solutions

New Delhi, Getac announced that Nestlé Wagner GmbH, has selected the Getac A140 fully rugged tablet to digitise workflows and optimise productivity at its headquarters in Nonnweiler, Germany. Nestlé Wagner GmbH produces around 350 million frozen food products annually, making it one of the largest manufacturers of frozen pizzas in Europe. Using the Getac A140, the company has achieved wide-ranging digitisation of its production processes, significantly increasing efficiency and allowing greater flexibility in day-to-day operations. Nestlé Wagner GmbH chose the fully rugged Getac A140 due to the quality assurance benefits it provides and the ability to roll it out extremely quickly to employees at the site, where it will complement existing laptops and special industrial computers already in use. "The Getac A140 is extremely robust and reliable due to its outstanding build quality," says Christian Joseph, Team Leader Operational Excellence at Nestlé Wagner GmbH. "Its rugged design and impressive performance makes it ideally suited to everyday use on the production floor." HighLevel Safety and Usability in a Wide Range of Temperature Zones In the food manufacturing process, it's critical that no contaminants enter the food at any point. With the deployment of the fully rugged Getac A140, Nestlé has the confidence that if a tablet is accidentally dropped, it won't break apart, ensuring production quality is maintained. The use of the tablets has also proved to be extremely user-friendly. Not only are the devices easy to handle, the 14" screen offers enough space to clearly display key software applications. For example, all standard SAP information can be displayed on-screen and transactions can be carried out quickly using the A140's stylus. Furthermore, the A140's high degree of tolerance to temperature fluctuations means it can be used in a wide variety of different temperature zones.

Business Brief

Toyota offers environmentfriendly concept of 'ECO Car Wash' service

Bangalore, In line with its endeavor to create ever better sustainable society, Toyota Kirloskar Motor further drives an environment friendly car cleaning solution, thus reducing the water consumed for washing cars through their new Eco Car Wash service. This eco initiative essentially supports to maximize the reduction of water utilization to an extent of 95% for every single car cleaned at Toyota's service outlets. Toyota Kirloskar Motor, was the first in the industry to introduce Eco Car Wash in the year 2014, have always been the forerunners of eco awareness and sustainable solutions towards conservation of natural resources. Toyota has been striving relentlessly to conserve the scarce water resource by introducing the eco car wash across its dealership over the years. Till date, 100 plus dealerships have adopted this eco concept of car wash to offer best-in-town vehicle servicing experience to its customers in the region. Toyota has developed video manuals and standard operating procedures to train the technicians on this unique car wash technique, offering quality service while achieving 100% customer satisfaction.

TVS Motor Chairman moves Madras HC for anticipatory bail

Chennai, TVS Motor Company Limited Chairman Venu Srinivasan has moved the Madras High Court for anticipatory bail in a missing idol case, informed sources said on Thursday. In his bail application, Srinivasan referred to a writ petition filed by one Elephant Rajendran. Srinivasan said that in paragraph 12 of an affidavit submitted in support of his petition, Rajendran had mentioned that an FIR has been filed against him. Srinivasan said he was appointed Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Srirangam Temple and that he had spent Rs 25 crore from his own pocket for the renovation of the entire holy complex. He said that Rs 70 lakh was spent by him on painting works at Sri Kabaleswarar Temple here. The industrialist also claimed that a private trust funded by him and his company has undertaken renovation of over 100 temples in Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka.

Cabinet nods plan to revive Gorakhpur, Barauni, Sindri fertilizer plants

New Delhi, The Union Cabinet on Thursday approved the revival plan for fertilizer plants in Gorakhpur (Uttar Pradesh), Sindri (Jharkhand) and Barauni (Bihar) by Hindustan Urvarak and Rasayan Limited (HURL). "The revival of Gorakhpur, Sindri and Barauni units of Fertilizer Corporation of India Ltd (FCIL)/ Hindustan Fertilizer Corporation Ltd (HFCL) will ensure substantial investment in the fertilizer sector," said an official statement. HURL is a joint venture company of Coal India Ltd, NTPC Ltd, Indian Oil Corporation Ltd, Fertilizer Corporation of India Ltd and HFCL. It was incorporated in 2016 to revive the three fertilizer units. "These units will act as anchor customer to Jagdishpur-Haldia ... gas pipeline being laid for development of critical infrastructure in eastern India," it said. This will create job opportunities in the region and boost the economy of the eastern states. Further, the revival of fertilizer unit will also augment indigenous production of urea, thereby enhancing self-reliance in urea, it added.

The revival plan includes providing land on lease for a period of 55 years at a nominal lease rent of Rs 1 lakh per annum to HURL and concession agreements for the three projects. The concession agreements will help HURL to carry out complete design, engineering, construction, procurement, testing, commissioning, operate and maintaining fertilizer plants and market its products.

Second auction of discovered oil, gas fields launched

New Delhi, Union Minister Dharmendra Pradhan on Thursday launched the second round of bidding for Discovered Small Field (DSF) with 190 million metric ton (MMT) of oil and gas equivalent that is likely to fetch Rs 45,000 crore for the government. "Under this round, 25 contract areas covering 59 discovered oil and gas fields spread over 3,000 sq.km having currently known volumes of 190 MMT or 1.4 billion barrels oil and gas equivalent are up for bidding," Pradhan said at the launch here. The Minister for Petroleum and Natural Gas said that if there is a complete bid, it is likely to generate Rs 45,000 crore for the government exchequer and 85,000 new jobs. The bidding will start in September first week and will continue till December 18.
